

NEW FAD
OFFICERS
1989 - 1990

Beats and Pieces

CHRISTMAS PARTY

December 10, 1988, Saturday should be marked on your calendars. It is the Christmas Party to be held at the Scandinavia Hotel. There will be a variety show, induction of officers and awarding of deserving and active members of the FAD. Tickets will be on sale on the first week of November.

Fr. Añez' New Parish

Fr. Añez is the first Filipino to be assigned of a parish in Aabenraa. He is also uniting the Filipinos in Southern Jylland. There are about 30 members who wish to be affiliated with the FAD.

Pilipinas '88 = Filipiniana

The "Pilipinas '88" or now named "Filipiniana" had staged their first show last September 30 after a year of planning and rehearsal. The group is doing a second show at the World Health Organization WHO on October 29, 1988.

C O M M E L E C

Although there will be no election to be held, the committee on election will proclaim the new officers (who won by default). The Committee is headed by Theresa Roxas with Isabel Malacas and Jimmy Anin as members.

You Are All Welcome

We are inviting everybody to put wedding, baptism, engagements, death, recovery announcements. A sentence or two will not hurt us. The INFO pages are open for every Filipino, member or non-member of the FAD.

Comelec Proclaims New FAD Officers

The Chairman, Board of Trustees
F.A.D. President
Members and fellow Pinoys

As there is no opponent to all running candidates for FAD officers 1989-90, the Comelec decided that there will be no casting of ballots on the 29th of October, 1988. There is no reason of waisting our time in going to the election hall.

We all know that election should be held, but our association is too small to believe, that we can violate the clause in the Philippine Constitutional Laws.

Therefore, through F.A.D. INFO, the COMELEC wishes to announce that the 1989-90 officers are as follows:

President***** Ben Adriatico
Vice Pres.***** Bernardo (DOY) Barbaso
Secretary***** Luz Koudal
Treasurer***** Elena B. Olsen
Asst. Sec. & treas.** Jocelyn Abundo
Bus. Manager***** Jennifer Stilling
Asst. Bus. Mgr.***** Rogelio (KAMBAL) Abundo
Auditor***** to be appointed
P.R.O.***** to be appointed

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Salud Hansen
Petra Garcia
Felix Cuenca, Jr.
Maura Arcilla
Albert Miraples
Consolacion Atis
+ 3 to be appointed

We wish you all the best.

Fiesta Filipina Recap

The recently held "Fiesta Filipina or much known as "barrio fiesta" garnered success in promoting the Filipino way of celebrating life with food, music, dance and pageantry.

THE FOOD:

The carinderia style of ESTER LUND was very unique - with 20 kr a plate and one had a taste of Bicol specialties; the "biko" of CRISTINA ABUNDO was entirely different in taste with that of JOSIE ABAINZA, both were delicious and had no point of comparison; no fiesta would be held without the indispensable pancit prepared by SALLY HANSEN who also prepared the Filipino bacon called "tocino"; IRENE CRUZ prepared Filipino sausages called "Langonisa" - a hit at the tables; PURITA PALITANG prepared the favourite afternoon delights: "halo-halo" and "guinatan bilo-bilo"; ANALITA SANTOS prepared the favourite morning merienda: "Kutsinta" and "Lumpiang sariwa"; EMILY ABUNDO likewise prepared a different "langonisa"; Nothing beats the cold iced buko of GODY CALUZA and WILLARD PERALTA who also sold a lot of Filipino dry and frozen goods, and Pinoy jewelries. All goodies were sold at very minimal prices.

THE GENEROUS PEOPLE:

The Cultural Committee wish to thank SISTER PILAR and the children dancers who contributed "Itik-Itik" and "Maglalatik"; FATHER PATRICK who never ceased giving his inspiration during the rehearsals; the FAD OFFICERS who constantly giving their guidance; CARINA JUHL and SHEILA ANIN who enthusiastically shared a modern dance number; AL BALBUENA and ROSE JIMENEZ for their rendition of Filipino folk song (with lyrics which hit below the belt of many Pinoys); LEVI PERALTA who thought of a merienda for the dancers otherwise they would have starved during the show;

PETRA and TONY GARCIA who supervised the preparation of the show; MANNY QUINTO who decorated the stage; ANDY RODA whose performance beyond comparison; FE MADSEN, MILA RODA and ADELINA NIELSEN who found time to sew some of the costumes; SALLY HANSEN for her inspiration and the flowers; GIGI FILSTRUP and NIT-NIT HØGSHOLM for lending us some costumes; BELEN QUINTO for donating prizes fro the short parlor games; even little SARAH STILLING and CHARLOTTE KODDAL made themsleves useful during the preparations JENS OLE STILLING who did the most important job of all - cleaning the hall after the show; the parents of the dancers and all those who helped whose names we could not remember, we apologize yet a million thanks to all.

THE DANCERS:

Congratulations to the dancers who showed patience to learn the new dances in 14 days: FREDDY ABUNDO, JESSICA RODA, NANDING ABUNDO, FILIPINA BARRETA, VAMGIE ABUNDO CANTOR, YOLY ABUNDO, JOCELYN ABUNDO, LEVI CRUZ, BENN ADRIATICO, ROGER TOLENTINO, HELEN TOLENTINO, JENNIFER STILLING, and ANNE MARIE BARRETA.

THE COMMITTEE:

Production: JENNIFER STILLING, production design and direction: BENN ADRIATICO; choreography: ANNE MARIE BARRETA; food arrangements: PETRA GARCIA; music: JERRY SERRANO; emcees: JOSEPHINE PERALTA and PETER NAIDAS; finance and tickets: ELENA OLSEN; The "Banga" (Banaue) Dance was a concerted effort of Jocelyn, Anne Marie, Benn and Jennifer.

THE COMMENT:

"Think what this group has to do just for the sake of "Lahing Pilipino!"

Chain Letters

Many Filipinos have been receiving chain letters from (who else?) fellow Filipinos most especially during the beginning of this month. Let us hear what they say about the letter:

"It was not only the receiving of a letter with threats which was sickening; worse was when I had to pay the stamp for the letter. The sender was not only stupid but also 'kuripot'."

ALBERT MIRAPLES

"Hindi salita ng Diyos ang laman ng sulat. Ang pananakot sa kapwa at gagamitin pa ang Diyos ay kasalanan at gawa-gawa ni Satanas!"

PETRA GARCIA

"I received three during the first week of this month. Unbelievable! I wonder where do these people (senders) get their time and effort to waste on such trivial things!"

TERESA BARBASO

"If you have a strong faith in God, you won't waste your time believing on a false prophecy. Why let a stupid chain letter run or ruin your life?"

Theresa Roxas

"Sabay tapon sa basura kasama ang mga advertisement newspapers. Mabuti pa kung binigay na lang na abuloy sa simbahan ang ginamit na pang-selyo!"

FREDDY ABUNDO

"I responded once to a chain letter. But that was long time ago and it was the first one I had ever received. I was so scared with those threats. But now, I couldn't care less."

SALLY HANSEN, President, FAD

"I open and laugh at the letter including the anonymous sender. But I don't do anything more. There are some giros and bills to attend to more important than the chain letter."

JENNIFER STILLING

"Chain letters are today's superstitious belief replacing the old 'nuno-sa-punso' doctrines. Too bad the Catholic religion is exploited in the letter. The originator is definitely a Catholic!"

BENN ADRIATICO

"I received a letter once and I couldn't obey the orders stated in the letter which is saying some Catholic prayers which I have no knowledge about them. So, I think I am excused!"

NIT-NIT HØGSHOLM

P.S.: According to resources(?), bad luck will fall on the sender if she or he fails to handwrite or typewrite the letters one by one. Photocopying the letter is against the spirit of the letter.

Father Patrick advised us that if we received an anonymous letter and suspect that it is a chain letter, throw it right away and never read it.

"I TOLD YOU FERGIE TO ANSWER THOSE CHAIN LETTERS!"
