PHILIPPINE NATIONAL ANTHEM

(Pambansang Awit ng Pilipinas)

*Bayang Magiliw,
Perlas ng silanganan.
Alab ng puso sa dibdib
Mo'y buhay.*

*Lupang hinirang,
Duyan ka ng magiting.
Sa manlulupig,
'di ka pasisiil.*

*Sa dagat at bundok,
Sa simoy at sa langit mong bughaw,
May dilag ang tula at awit
Sa paglayang minamahal.*

*Ang kislap ng watawat mo'y
Tagumpay na nagniningning.
Ang bituin at araw niya
Kailan pa ma'y di magdidilim.*

*Lupa ng araw ng luwalhati't pagsinta,
Buhay ay langit sa piling mo.
Aming ligaya na pag may mang-aapi,
Ang mamatay ng dahil sa iyo.*

Message

We commemorate on 12 June 2002 the 104th anniversary of the declaration of Philippine independence. On this historic day, we look back with great pride at the heroic struggles of our forebears so that we may be free and take our place as an active member of the international community.

Today, we have many reasons to thank God for the many blessings He has given to all of us. The Filipino people, at home and abroad, had contributed and continues to contribute to nation building – a task that is both noble and ennobling. Our sense of nationhood is constantly honed and defined by our daily experiences and our interactions with our own people and our contacts with other peoples around the world.

It is indeed gratifying to see our people and friends of the Philippines working hand in hand to put our country in the imaginary landscape of the great and friendly peoples of the countries which many of you now call your home.

We have always maintained that every Filipino abroad is an Ambassador of Goodwill of the Republic of the Philippines. Let this be your commitment and mission for the land of your birth. For second and third generation Filipinos abroad, we say, "Be proud of your roots and your heritage."

There are many ways and opportunities that we can avail ourselves of to promote Philippine interests and to win more friends for our country and people. If we remain united and steadfast, we will be able to achieve our national goals and bring about a qualitative change in our society.

As we continue to build on the solid foundation laid by our noble and heroic forebears, we are indeed fortunate that we can count on all Filipinos and our foreign friends to help us in making the country of our dreams peaceful and progressive.

It behooves all of us to rededicate ourselves to the great ideals that enabled us to be a sovereign nation. As we seize the opportunities and face the challenges of the days to come, it is our hope that we will all be equal to the tasks that are before us as we continue to build a vibrant and dynamic Philippine society.

Mabuhay ang Republika ng Pilipinas, at sana ang inyong pagdiriwang ng makasaysayang araw ng ating kasarinlan ang magparubdub sa inyong pagmamahal sa ating bansa at mga kababayan.

Ambassador

Message

It is a great pleasure for me to convey my warmest greetings to all members of the Filipino Association of Denmark on the occasion of the 104th anniversary of the declaration of the Philippine independence.

On September 22-24, 2002 great focus will be on the Philippines -- as well as other Asian countries when Denmark hosts the Asia-Europe Summit (ASEM IV). I hope you will take an active part in the cultural programme of the Summit, because of the rich Philippine cultural traditions, which makes me specially proud of representing the Philippine as Consul.

I think that the Summit is a chance for our two continents to cooperate, and the dialogue may bring better understanding between our people.

God bless you and Mabuhay!

Philippine Consul, a.h.

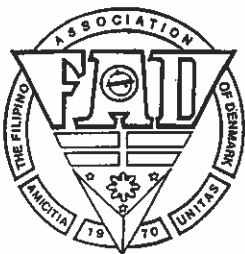

Message

I take pleasure in greeting each and everyone a hearty "Mabuhay" on the occasion of the 104th year anniversary of the Philippine Independence. This is a very rare occasion when we can share moment to think fondly of our dear homeland.

A nation's independence day is more than a celebration to mark freedom from an oppressor. It is also an expression of national unity, identity and joy. It is a time when entire nation says to itself and to outsiders: "This is my country, my culture, my heritage and I am proud of it."

Message

Good news for Independence Day 2002. Something to celebrate in the Philippines.

Three cheers for the young active attractive Gloria Arroyo Macapagal, President of the Philippines, for the Military General in Mindanao, and for the Moro Islamic Front. These three have come together to work for Peace and Prosperity and Justice in that very troubled island of Mindanao.

Manila, we are told does not view the MLF as terrorists. One of their leaders has said, "The American soldiers, Phil. Army are not our enemy. 'POVERTY' is. More bloodshed won't solve that problem." After 20 years of fruitless fighting, these are encouraging words from the Muslim rebels.

It should also make the 7.2 million Filipinos who lived abroad relieved and happy. We, with FAD, President, Officers and Members should share and be aware of this hopeful news. Little did one think that that a young woman President Gloria Arroyo could take on such a task. Knowing her religious background, one can imagine how much she has prayed and prayed for this "Mission Impossible". But with her simple Faith and trust in God she has like another Joan of Arc has gone to battle for a better Philippines, for justice, peace and prosperity.

Let us join with her and with Cardinal Sin to pray for the Philippines, and for Filipinos all over the world. May they be instruments for peace, justice, progress, and especially for the highest spiritual and moral values handed down to them from generations past. God be praised for the Filipinos at home and abroad. They are God's blessing to the world today.

Three cheers for the FAD. The original organisation in Denmark. I may not be with you for this celebration, but believe me, my thoughts and prayers, and my heart is there with you. Do have a lovely evening together. God bless you all.

Sincerely,

PATRICK J. SHEILS, C.Ss.R.
Chaplain for the Filipinos

Message

As the Philippines celebrates its 104 years of independence, the Bayanihan Center salutes the Filipino spirit here in Denmark.

- We salute his undying will to fight for and preserve his freedom.
- We salute his ingenuity to rise above his limitations.
- We salute his hospitality in bringing meaningful services to others.
- We salute his talents and effort in achieving a collective fulfillment of a singular commitment.
- And most of all, we salute his humanity which goes beyond kinship and family.

We stand today by every Filipino here in our small community as he strives for a new kind of personal freedom that can provide a life of peace.

SAMPAGUITA

(Song 1)

Sampaguitang walang kaparis,
Ang bango mo'y kaakit-akit.
Saksi ka ng mga pusong
Nagsusumpaang sa pag-ibig.
At ngayon ko naala-ala
Ikaw ang bulaklak na naging kuwintas ko
Na galing sa aking sinta.
Buhat noon ang kuwintas ng aking puso
Ay patak ng luha sa pagkasiphayo.
Ang irog ko'y hindi tapat sa pangako.
Ang tunay na sumpaan
Ikaw ang saksi naging biro.
Habang nag-iisa sina-sariwa sa ala-ala
Ang sampaguita ng pagsinta
Sa puso ko dina malalanta.

IKAW ANG MAHAL KO

(Song 2)

Ikaw ang mahal ko,
Ikaw ang mahal kong tunay na tunay,
Ang laging panaginip ko'y tanging ikaw.
Ngunit ang totoo madalas mong
 mapag-alinlanganan,
Ang puso kong tapat sa pagsintang di mo alam.

Ang pag-ibig kong lubusan
Kay hirap maunawaan.
Sa puso ko ang pagsintang dalisay
Laging wagas kahit mapagbintangan.
Ikaw ang mahal ko,
Ikaw ang mahal kong tunay na tunay,
Sa puso kong tapat sa pagsintang di mo alam.

(Repeat)

Ang pag-ibig kong lubusan
Kay hirap maunawaan.
Sa puso ko ang pagsintang dalisay
Laging wagas kahit mapagbintangan.
Ikaw ang mahal ko,
Ikaw ang mahal kong tunay na tunay,
Sa puso kong tapat sa pagsintang di mo alam.

LA-LA-LA X3..... di mo alam.
